

Central Coast Regional District
Bylaw No. 525

---

A bylaw to establish the Fire Protection Service Tolls payable to the Central Coast Regional District for properties not subject to property taxation by legislation.

---

WHEREAS the Board of Directors of the Central Coast Regional District has established by Bylaw No. 175 and Bylaw No. 502 fire protection service areas with provision for property taxation in support of this service;

WHEREAS there are properties within the service areas which benefit from the service, but which are not subject to property taxation;

NOW THEREFORE, the Board of Directors of the Central Coast Regional District, in open meeting assembled, enacts as follows:

1. This bylaw is applicable to those properties not subject to property taxation, which are situated within the boundaries of the Bella Coola fire suppression local service area and the Hagensborg Fire Protection service area, and that benefit from the provision of fire protection services provided by the Central Coast Regional District.
2. Annual tolls for fire protection services, as shown on Schedule A, attached to and forming part of this bylaw, are hereby fixed and made payable to the Central Coast Regional District annually, commencing after January 01, 2023.
3. The billing date shall be the first working day after July 1st in each year.
4. Fire tolls shall be due and payable sixty (60) days after the billing date. A percentage addition of ten percent (10%) of the amount may be added to the current charges should they remain unpaid after 60 days.
5. Bylaw No. 510 cited as "Bella Coola and Hagensborg Fire Protection Tolls Bylaw No. 510, 2022" is hereby repealed.

This bylaw may be cited as the "Bella Coola and Hagensborg Fire Protection Tolls Bylaw No. 525, 2023".
